

"The European Stem Cell Network it is an open platform for all scientists, organizations and networks to promote, strengthen and optimise the European stem cells research." seeks the incorporation according to the following professional background:

1.- Technical Secretary for the European Stem Cell Network (Ref. 0062 ST-ESCN)

The main purpose of the post can be summarized as follows:

- Administrative Coordination of the European Stem Cell Network
- Updating of the researchers, research groups and centres and companies databases
- Management of registrations and resigning of members
- Network meetings organization
- Technical-administrative support to the Governing Board of the ESCN
- ESCN web page maintenance and updating
- Coordination of ESCN internal and external communication activities

Requested background:

- Graduation or full University degree, preferably in the field of Life Sciences: Biology, Pharmacy, Medicine, Physics, Chemistry, Biomedicine, Biochemistry, Environmental Sciences, etc.
- Proved experience in biomedical research management, preferably at international level
- Research network coordination will be appreciated
- Advanced skills in office IT tools
- Used to travel and journeys
- Fluent English essential and other languages skills will be valued

We are seeking a person with:

- Planning abilities
- Initiative, responsibility, methodical and with organizational skills

- High degree of involvement with the company's general targets
- Autonomous, meticulous and discreet

Advertising

The position will be published in the web page of "Fundación Progreso y Salud", where the requested professional background will be detailed. It will be also announced through:

www.fundacionprogresoysalud.org

www.cabimer.es

www.europeanstemcell.net/opencms/dynamic/SCN/careers/

www.juntadeandalucia.es/salud

www.ratri.es

www.gen-es.org

www.raitec.es

www.otri.us.es

Recruitment procedure

After a first revision of the received documents, the selected candidates according to their respective CVs will be invited to a second step consisting of individual tests with the aim of evaluating the requested skills as well as to a personal interview.

Candidates' application

To obtain additional information on requirements and conditions of the offered position and to participate in the recruitment procedure introducing the requested CV data, applicant shall visit the web page of Fundación Progreso y Salud:

www.fundacionprogresoysalud.org

Deadline for application and CVs reception is August 27th at 13:00 (CET).
The position will be located in Seville.

Sevilla, on June 27, 2007

Juan Jesús Bandera
General Manager